

PERSONALITIES

What impression do you

BY ABBI WEBB

BOYS....MEET THE GIRLS!

THE "POPULAR" GIRL

This girl is never seen walking on her own. Always with friends, this girl is insecure. You would find it hard to get her alone, she has to be with her mates. Even if you did manage to pull her away, you would realise she is quiet without her posse. Girls like this put on an act, if she is willing to let you take her away, be nice and sensitive.

THE "DREAMER" GIRL

Boys, if you find this girl, don't let her go! Often seen walking with a daze in her eyes, miming along to her music or staring up at the sky. This girl is a high-flyer. She has high aims, big ambitions and is a dreamer. Very likely to go far in life, this girl is special. If you are lucky enough to catch her eye, smile and say something random. Chances are she is thinking it too!

THE "STALKER" GIRL

Don't worry, this girl does not stalk boys, but she stalks the streets. Stubborn, opinionated and confident, this girl strides her way through not only the streets but through life. Don't start arguments, you won't win with this girl! Likely to get to places on time and complain when she is running late. This girl is not open to contrasting opinions. She won't get on with you if you argue with her all the time. She needs a guy who is strong but silent. Be sensitive and that way you'll get your own stalker. Lucky you!

THE "PRETTY" GIRL

Finally boys, meet the pretty girl. Not necessarily pretty, these girls are most commonly known for walking like penguins. Normally found wearing tight skirts, outward pointed feet and over-done make-up. These girls are more like catwalk wannabe's. Sorry girls, but guys just don't find this attractive! Some words of advice; get a skirt that fits, lose some make-up and get a better attitude. You will notice the difference when guys start smiling at you instead of laughing!

You are walking down your local high street. You are walking past top brand shops and you fancy buying a new pair of trainers. You walk into a shop and start looking at this new pair of Nike trainers. You look at the price tag and you think where can I get this kind of money? You can wash cars for £5, look after pets or if you're old enough even baby-sit.

You might like to wear top brand clothes because you want to fit in with your mates and you might think that it will make you more popular. You might think your friends only like you because of your image. But sometimes you might be wrong. Your friends might like you because of your personality and might not care about your image if you were in old clothes.

As fashion is growing, everything is used as fashion! For example Timberland is a brand specialist for mountain hiking and camping but people use Timberland boots as just a pair of trainers. Even the NBA which is a basketball league in America is importing clothes for each basketball team. People wear this type of clothing because rap stars wear them in their music videos.

I personally think fashion isn't important. However I would like to get new clothes instead of wearing old clothes.

Overall I think there is too much pressure on young people to look a certain way and to buy expensive clothes to keep up with the latest fashion. Often young people feel that they need to have the same clothes or look as their friends. Magazines and what celebrities are wearing influence us and make us too image conscious. I think it is best to be an individual when it comes to what you wear and how you look. There are more important things in life than brand names and designer clothes.
