

Music Review

Barnfield Music Studios

Vol 1

Barnfield Music Studios is based at Barnfield Youth Centre in Kingston. The project is open to anyone who has a passion for music. On this occasion a group of talented young people worked on a 10 track album that was sent into Youth Unlimited to be reviewed. Here is what we thought.

"Good

songs with good music and good lyrics!"

"Beautiful guitar playing and voices set the background to meaningful and emotional lyrics."

"A range of different musical styles to make you cry, make you think and make you dance."

"A great Mario remix finishes the album in style."

Mayank Sharma

If you'd like a free copy of the album, email Anife (Youth Worker) on anife.faria@rbk.kingston.gov.uk

Barnfield Music Studios Vol 1 offers a diverse and interesting CD with varying styles of music. The artists choose songs that were both personal favourites (People Get Ready) as well as songs of a personal nature such as 'RIP Mum'. The songs are moving and cut deep into their personal feelings. I really enjoyed the CD and it has opened the door for me to bring my band to the studios and try our styles.

Alex Coniff (16)

The CD wasn't what I expected, but the songs were good.

The first four tracks show off the artist's guitar playing and voice, creating beauty, emotion and mood.

In the first song the lyrics are good but the tempo is too slow because the composer only uses the guitar.

Song 6 has a good instrumental but the lyrics are better the first 3 songs.

Overall some good music and lyrics.