

Make extra cash

So summer is on its way and you're strapped for cash. It's not the most ideal situation to be in and I'm guessing that you think it's time to do something about it. Well the good news is that you can start to do something about it NOW, yes even TODAY. On this page you'll find some suggestions of ways to make money through starting your own part time business. Yes you heard right, you get to make money and be your own boss at the same time. However before you start building your empire, please speak to your parents first about your idea and get their permission.

Pet sit for neighbours on holiday or walk dogs.

Tutor one of your a classmates in one of your best subjects. You'll make some cash and help them out too.

Mow your neighbour's lawns, make sure the first one you do is really good because word of mouth can really build a business.

Ever been called a computer genius? Use your computer expertise to help other students or adults.

Help a busy mum out by becoming their nanny or helping around the house.

Start your own DJ business, no doubt there will be lots of BBQ's and parties this summer.
