

iPod nano competition

It's the small iPod with one very big idea: video!

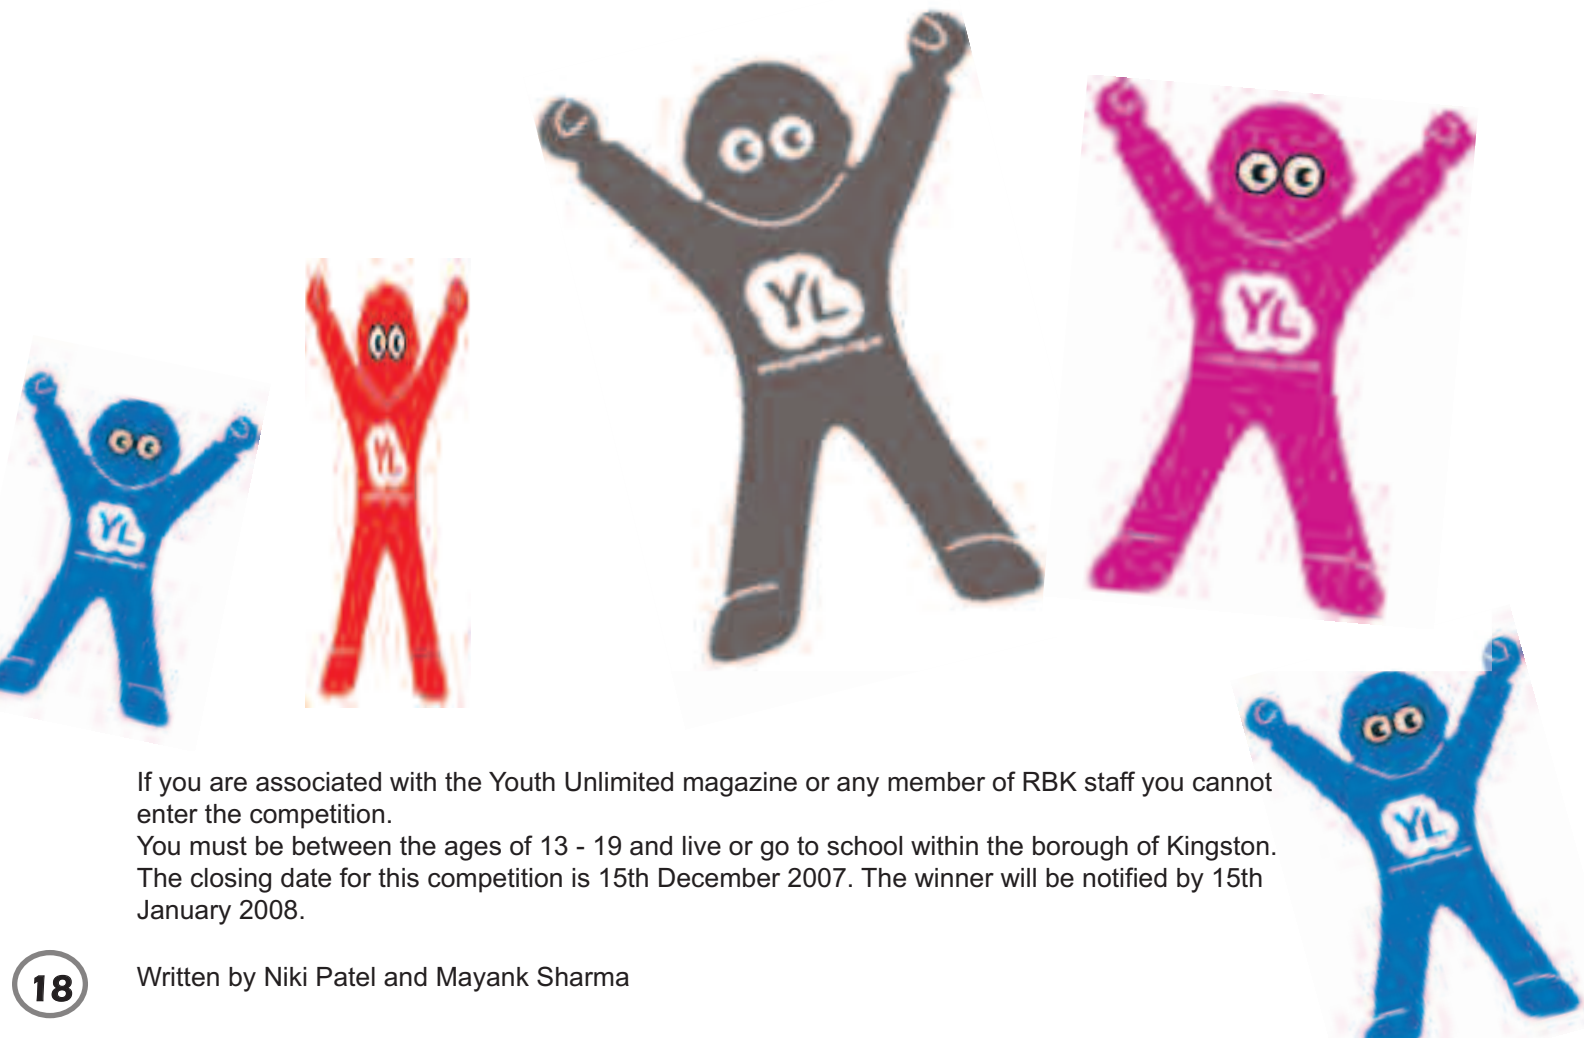

Here is your chance to win a brand new video I-POD Nano worth £129. Interested? Keep reading!

The young livin website is a site for young people in Kingston. It is a chance for young people to find out about events in the area, a chance to voice their opinions and get advice if needed. Young livin are offering you the opportunity to update your iPod or to finally own one. (The iPod you could win, has one very big idea: video.) The I-Pod plays up to 5 hours of video or up to 24 hours of audio on a single charge.

Entering this competition is free and all you have to do is email your answers, to the questions below to younglivin@rbk.kingston.gov.uk. Make sure you add your full name, address, date of birth and the name of the school you go to. All entries without these details will not be valid.

Questions

1. What colour is the stress man on page 9?
2. What article is the pink stress man on?
3. What's the answer to the question, the stress man is asking on page 10?
4. What's the answer to the question, the stress man is asking on page 12?
5. What colour is the stress man, on the page, about a group of youths that will be travelling?
6. What colour top is the girl wearing on the eating disorders page on young livin?

If you are associated with the Youth Unlimited magazine or any member of RBK staff you cannot enter the competition.

You must be between the ages of 13 - 19 and live or go to school within the borough of Kingston. The closing date for this competition is 15th December 2007. The winner will be notified by 15th January 2008.